Overview

Eat24 is a major restaurant delivery company that offers turnkey delivery services to its partners without any startup costs. The company markets the service to local customers, posts your menu online, takes orders, collects the payments and handles the administrative chores like insurance, vehicles maintenance and screening and hiring drivers. All you have to do is cook and package the food for delivery after receiving the verified order from Eat24. You pay a 12.5 percent commission, which is based on the order's pretax total, in most cases.
